v1.

B^b E^b
My Lord, I did not choose you,
B^b F^b
For that could never be;
B^b E^b
My heart would still refuse you
B^b F^b B^b
Had you not chosen me.
B^b E^b
You took the sin that stained me,
B^b F^b
You cleansed me, made me new;
B^b E^b
Of old, you had ordained me
B^b F^b B^b
That I should live in you.

v2.

Unless your grace had called me
And taught my opening mind,
The world would have enthralled me,
To heavenly glories blind.

My heart knows none above you;
For your rich grace I thirst,
I know that if I love you,
You must have loved me first.

Capo III:

v1.

G C
My Lord, I did not choose you,
G D
For that could never be;
G C
My heart would still refuse you
G D G
Had you not chosen me.
G C
You took the sin that stained me,
G D
You cleansed me, made me new;
G C
Of old, you had ordained me
G D G
That I should live in you.
