

Philippians Hymn

© & ©2004 Swiftly Running Music & Records.
Words and Music by: Jay Mathes Mkrtschjan
CCLI#: 5105555

V1.

G Am C D
It's my eager expecting and hope of no shame,
G Am C D
But that with full courage now as always
G Am C D
Christ will be honored by life or by death.
Am C D G Am C D
Christ is to live, my death, to bless.

V2.

G* Am C D
Do nothing from rivalry or from conceit
G Am C D
But in humility, love and concede.
G Am C D
Let not one look to his own interests,
Am C D G Am C D
But to the brethren for their best.

V3.

For we are the real circumcision of God
By Spirit, glory, in Jesus our Lord.
Confidence we do not put in the flesh.
Christ is our joy – our righteousness.

V4.

Forgetting what lies behind – straining ahead
Press toward the goal for which Christ's blood was shed.
Not of my own, but faith given by God,
Sets my soul free where angels trod.

V5.

By God's grace we'll partner to share the good news.
Eternal life saints can never refuse.
Finally, brothers, whatever is true,
Dwell on these things to live them through.

*On all verses but V1, the melody is an eighth note pickup

As recorded on Restoration Project:
Guitars Capo III. Key of F.